Special Hearing Advice Week

A name you can trust will help you hear the things you love.

Age UK working with UK Hearing Care would like to welcome local residents to attend a Special Hearing Advice Week being held at a venue in your area. It's your opportunity to 'hear everything and see for yourself'.

This interesting and informative event will give local residents the opportunity to talk to a local qualified hearing aid audiologist about their hearing concerns. Those attending will receive fully independent and informative hearing advice focusing on improving clarity for those with hearing difficulties.

If you struggle with some degree of hearing loss and are looking to improve on your day to day hearing clarity you should take advantage of this event.

During this Special Hearing Advice Week, our leading independent hearing care professionals will be giving the best advice on hearing in background noise and hearing with improved clarity; as well as special demonstrations on the latest ultra discreet hearing solutions.

If you would like to attend this event and arrange a FREE hearing assessment, call to make an appointment on 0800 620 0313.

If you are unable to attend the Special Hearing Advice Week, our audiologist holds regular hearing clinics and is available for home appointments. Please call the freephone number for further details.

Our NEW approach

We understand improved hearing is not just about volume, it's about clarity...

At Age UK Hearing Aids we have made it our business to address the problem of background noise head on and create an innovative new way of dealing with background noise. It's a popular misconception that your hearing will be improved simply by amplifying what you hear. But did you know that one of the most common problems people encounter with hearing difficulties in background noise is that speech remains muffled and indistinct and that unwanted noise swamps foreground sounds? Simply making sounds louder doesn't make speech any clearer. Until now...

Let's make things clear

How do Age UK Hearing Aids make sense of speech especially in background noise?

It all starts with our approach to the hearing assessment which is a truly remarkable FREE consultation that has already shown thousands of people how to hear more clearly even in background noise.

The Age UK Hearing Aids hearing assessment will focus on the areas that cause you the most difficulty and also provides an ideal opportunity in which you can find out more about your specific hearing loss and what solution is best suited to give you the sharpest and clearest hearing possible from the latest technology.

Quite often the cause of dulled hearing could be simply due to the accumulation of wax – but how do we know as we can't see inside our ear. The Age UK Hearing Aids hearing assessment includes a video otoscopy examination which lets you see your ears like you've never seen them before – on a colour TV monitor. This allows you and our qualified registered hearing aid dispenser to see exactly what is going on.

Our NEW approach

In addition to the standard hearing assessment we also carry out the revolutionary Speech-in-Noise (QuickSIN) test that shows how well you can hear in the presence of background noise and provides an indication of the likely benefit you will derive from a hearing aid.

To ensure your maximum listening comfort our audiologists use our state-of-the-art equipment to conduct an Acceptable Noise Level (ANL) test that measures how much general noise you can tolerate while listening to speech. This ensures we can make the best use of the latest noise cancellation technologies available across our extensive range of hearing solutions. We are pleased to offer you this enhanced level of hearing care, which involves no discomfort at all.

If a hearing loss is discovered, you will be offered the opportunity to try out your ideal sounding hearing aid. This will enable you to test out a hearing aid with real life everyday background sounds. You and your family will be amazed at the clarity of hearing, even when you are in background noise.

We actively encourage you to bring a family member to your consultation as experience has proved that a familiar voice for a speech clarity test is a great help.

To book your free hearing assessment and digital hearing aid demonstration, call us today on 0800 620 0313

BIDDING FOR MORE SHOPS

Entertainment at the Abbey

THREE thousand visitors flocked to Abbey Meadows on Saturday for Abingdon's annual carnival and music event.

Live music and entertainment went on throughout the day for the Fun in the Park and Music in the Park events, culminating in a fireworks display at the end of the evening. See page 3.

New scheme could help fill empty town centre units

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

A BUSINESS Improvement District (BID) in Abingdon could help bring more shops to the Bury Street precinct, the manager of the Choose Abingdon Partnership has said.

Heather Brown made the comments following a meeting between the partnership and town centre businesses at the Guildhall last Thursday.

The BID would see town centre businesses paying a levy to the partnership, which in turn would work to increase footfall in the town and help companies with things such as getting lower energy bills or moving online.

And a consultant from British BIDs said at last week's meeting that having a BID in place would make Abingdon more appealing to brand-name shops.

"Some of the huge multi-national companies often think that working at a local level is perhaps a bit beneath them," said Ms Brown.

"What the BID has got to do is convince them that we can offer to help market those properties, even if it's just giving information about footfall or promotion.

"We are now being advised by British BIDs, who say that these companies are far more likely to talk to you if you are a BID, because they don't take other forms of town centre management seriously."

Other ideas brought up at Thursday's meeting included launching a smartphone app for Abingdon, which would tell shoppers about events or special offers relating to shops in the town.

An online shopping site has also been introduced for independent retailers, to help them increase their business to a national and international level.

Ms Brown added: "The important thing is to provide an online service that does not take a huge cut out of their margin.

"Some retailers have already set up their own Internet selling sites and found that the set up costs and the cost of marketing to drive people to look at their sites makes it an expensive move. The BID aims to solve this by linking with a site that already has thousands of visitors, and growing."

Businesses in the town centre are set to vote on whether to introduce the BID proposal to Abingdon over a 28-day period in October and November.

Runners splashed in paint for charity

• Sian Davies and Helen & Douglas House nurse Gemma Radnor

HUNDREDS of runners were splattered in paint on Sunday as part of a unique fun run to raise money for an Oxford hospice.

The first-ever city Rainbow Run saw 700 participants run three kilometres through University Parks for children and young people's hospice Helen and Douglas House. It is hoped to have raised more than £30,000.

Runners were streaked in different coloured paints as they jogged around the course.

Suzanne Watts from Witney ran with her three daughters - 11-year-old Amy, and twins Jasmine and Ceara, eight.

• Kiera Harris, Caroline Schor and Sophie Newell complete the run (Pictures by Cereta Drewett)

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

The twin sons of Suzanne's brother-in-law Mike Illingworth, Ollie and Ben, were both born with a life-shortening condition and have been visiting Helen & Douglas House for the past seven years.

Ben died in 2012, but Ollie is now 12-years-old and regularly visits the hospice for respite care.

Suzanne said: "We are great supporters and have all visited in the past.

"It is an amazing and beautiful space for children and parents alike.

She added: "This is the first time I have been involved in one of the Helen & Douglas House fun runs and this one is particularly great as I was able to do it with our three girls.

"We all really enjoyed the rainbow run. It was great fun and wonderful to see everyone smiling."

Also taking part in the run was Sian Davies, 16, from Wantage, who is also cared for at the hospice.

Sian has congenital heart disease and lung problems, and is in a wheelchair much of the time. She managed to walk the final yards across the finish line.

She said: "I was really excited about taking part in the rainbow run and really enjoyed the paint being thrown at me.

"It was great fun, just like coming to Helen House."

Poppy Hanbury, activities fundraiser from Helen & Douglas House, said: "It was a fantastic day. The sun shone and everyone had great fun getting covered in paint all the colours of the rainbow.

"I would like to extend a big thank you to all our runners, our volunteers, paint point sponsors and everyone who helped put on this event."

Police appeal

ASTHALL: Police are appealing for witnesses after a restaurant in Asthall, near Burford, was broken into last Friday.

Offenders were seen driving through a field at 2.20am to get to the Windmill Restaurant, and smashed a rear window to get in.

It is not believed anything was stolen.

Anyone with information is asked to call police on 101 or contact independent charity Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

Green team

CHERWELL: A roadshow to encourage residents to recycle is visiting Kidlington, Bicester and Banbury next week.

Members of Cherwell District Council's green team will be at Sainsbury's stores for the roadshow.

They will stop off in Banbury on June 18 and Bicester and Kidlington on June 19.

Nigel Morris, lead member for clean and green, said: "The recycling roadshow is a great chance for us to speak directly with the public."

WW2 shell

KIDLINGTON: A live Second World War mortar shell was detonated safely in Kidlington last Friday.

Police officers worked with the army to move the device from a Kidlington garden to a safe location for disposal.

Officers remained in the village following the explosion to speak to residents who heard or felt the aftershock.

Janet Moores, 71, found it in her garden in Green Road and called the police, who arrived with an RAF bomb squad.

Oxfordshire's military heralded in new museum

A NEW museum dedicated to the servicemen of Oxfordshire will open in Woodstock on Sunday.

The Soldiers of Oxfordshire Museum will tell stories from the trenches of both world wars, and the county's presence in conflicts today.

Oxfordshire has strong links to the military through RAF Brize Norton and Benson, Dalton and Vauxhall Barracks in Abingdon and Didcot, and the logistic installation at Bicester.

Collections from the Oxfordshire Yeomanry and the Oxfordshire and Buckinghamshire Light Infantry are housed at the museum, tracing their histories of the regiments.

It is hoped that the museum will be used a learning resource for schools and families to find out more about how conflicts have affected the county.

Sunday's grand opening at 2pm will be heralded by the Oxford Caledonian Pipe Band.

It follows a private reception for all those who have been involved in its opening.

The museum is in the grounds of the existing Oxfordshire Museum, on Park Street, which currently sees thousands of visitors each month.

It will open from 10am to 5pm Tuesdays to Saturdays, and from 2pm to 5pm on Sundays.

Residents enjoy fun and sun in the park

THOUSANDS of Abingdon residents sung and danced at Abbey Meadows on Saturday, as part of the town's annual Music in the Park and Fun in the Park events.

Crowds enjoyed a mix of entertainment that included maggot racing, Morris dancing and badge making during the afternoon for Fun in the Park.

Various charities and local organisations set up stalls in the park, to promote themselves to the three thousand visitors.

Later in the day, local bands including Prisoner of Katrina, Skin the Cat and The Undercovers took over Abbey Meadows for Music in the Park.

It also included a performance by the Abingdon Town Band, featuring mayor Angela Lawrence singing 'Rule Britannia' alongside the group.

"It seemed to go well!" said Cllr Lawrence, who has previously sung at Music in the Park in 2012 and 2013.

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

"I'm always extremely nervous. I spend the day having the jitters, but everybody seemed to enjoy it.

"The town band have always known that I do sing and I've got quite a strong voice. This is my third year now, so back by popular request!"

Heavy rain earlier in the day had threatened both events going ahead, but conditions improved later in the afternoon.

Cllr Lawrence added: "The atmosphere was just wonderful, I thought everything was really terrific.

"Everybody I spoke to said what a good time they were having, they enjoyed all the bands, and joined in with the singing.

"By 11am it was dry and quite sunny, so we had a good crowd and I hope the charities made money."

Honours presented to county's Parent Champions

ABINGDON'S mayor Angela Lawrence honoured Oxfordshire's Parent Champions at a ceremony on Friday, as she presented them with certificates of achievement.

Six parents are currently volunteering with the programme, which sees them provide information about the benefits of high quality childcare to other parents, and the support available to them.

Friday's ceremony took place at charity Action for Children's South Abingdon Children's Centre, to coincide with national Volunteers' Week.

Mike Barnett has been a Parent Champion at the Abingdon centre since 2012.

He said: "It's been such a rewarding role and I've thoroughly enjoyed passing on my knowledge and giving something back to the centre that helped me so much with my own children."

Paul Wolf, volunteer coordinator at the centre, said: "Our Parent Champions help us to reach out to families in the area. We're really pleased their hard work and dedication has been recognised."

Deborah Brodie, from the Family and Childcare Trust, added: "The Action for Children Parent Champions scheme in Oxfordshire has been a crucial part of efforts to tell local people about the Government's new free childcare places for eligible two-year-olds.

"We depend on volunteers like these to get the message out."

Photo winners

ABINGDON: The Rotary Club of Abingdon Vesper has chosen the winners of its photography competition, which tasked children to take snaps of the town.

First prize went to 10-year-old Melissa Reeves, who was awarded £50 for her picture of boats by Abingdon lock.

Justyna Majewska, 10, claimed second and Alex Horsham, 10, was third, while 13-year-old Stab Majewski was crowned the winner of the secondary schools class.

Phone upgrade

ABINGDON: The Malthouse Surgery has installed a new telephone system, which it hopes will cut call waiting times and cut expenditure by a third

The new DuoCall system also means that patients will no longer pay for calls to the previous 0844 number.

Practice manager David Ridgway said: "We can now see in real time who is calling the surgery and how many people are queuing, increasing resource as needed."

The surgery's new number is 01235 468860.

Town craft fair

ABINGDON: A craft market is being hosted in the Market Place this Saturday, where a wide range of items and gifts will be on offer.

Live music will also be played from clarinets and vocalists throughout the day. It is due to run from 9am to 3pm.

Ambassador

WALLINGFORD: The town's ambassador for this year's carnival will be chosen on Saturday.

Mayor Jane Titchener will be one of four judges at the event at Wallingford School.

The Wallingford Ambassador will be chosen between 4pm and 6pm and each school has selected one male and female representative.

The winner will take part in the Carnival on June 21, and will represent the 'youth of the area' during their year of office.

Body found

THAME: The body of a man, believed to be 90-years-old, was found on a bridleway in Tetsworth on Sunday morning.

Paramedics were called after the man was found at 8am, but he was pronounced dead at the scene.

Police are treating the death as unexplained.

Flag ceremony

OXFORD: A flag-raising ceremony commemorating the role of the armed forces will be held at Oxford Castle on June 23.

Representatives from the army, RAF, navy, Royal British Legion and cadets will be in attendance.

D-Day landings commemorated

By Jack Johnson
jack@taylornewspapers.co.uk

HUNDREDS of schoolchildren took a trip back in time as part of Didcot Railway Centre's D-Day commemoration last Friday.

Two hundred and twenty five children from six schools in and around Didcot attended the museum to mark the 70th anniversary of the D-Day landings in France.

The pupils, aged between seven and 11, have been learning about the Second World War and the impact it had on children.

Dressed in wartime clothing and carrying gas marks, the children were evacuated by steam train, experienced bombing in an air raid shelter, and tried rations such as Spam and jam roly-poly.

Tim Stevenson OBE, Her Majesty's Lord Lieutenant of Oxfordshire, officially opened the event alongside Didcot Mayor Scott Wilgrove.

South Moreton was one of the schools that attended and teacher Sue Garner said the children "understood and empathised" with the events of the Second World War.

• (From front to back) Louis Macpherson, seven, Charlotte Taylor, eight, Florence Sheedy, eight, Jacob Benham, eight, and Steffi Harrison, eight, at Didcot Railway Centre

"We have been studying the Second World War and how it affected children," she added.

The pupils also enjoyed an old-fashioned Punch and Judy show, which Charlotte Taylor and Jacob Benham, both aged eight, said was their favourite part of the day.

Charlotte added: "I would imagine it would be good to live during that time but children were not as lucky as us. We have good food and we are a lot safer."

Bus fire and fuel spill lead to road chaos

DRIVERS faced lengthy delays last Friday after a bus caught fire on the A40 between Wheatley and Headington.

Fire crews were called just before 4pm to the Oxford-bound carriageway, where the bus had stopped shortly before the Thornhill Park and Ride.

The driver had pulled over and evacuated everyone from the bus. No-one was injured in the fire.

Watch manager Mark Keely said: "I would like to thank the bus driver for his quick thinking and prompt actions to evacuate the bus prior to our arrival."

And on Sunday, the London-bound carriageway of the A40 was closed for several hours following a collision between a car and two lorries.

The fuel tank of one of the lorries was damaged in the incident, resulting in about 500 litres of diesel being spilt across both lanes.

A 53-year-old man was arrested following the collision, and charged with five separate offences, including dangerous driving.

He has been bailed to appear at Oxford Magistrates' Court on June 24.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Josh Florey feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps.

Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service Oxfordshire from their local depots and Josh is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truthis that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Josh a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Sexual predators handed jail terms

By Jack Johnson
jack@taylornewspapers.co.uk

TWO men sexually assaulted a teenage girl, before another threatened to shoot her if she told the police, Oxford Crown Court heard last week.

The 17-year-old girl was sexually assaulted at a property in Cowley Road, Oxford, on December 17, 2011.

Bilal Ahmed, 27, of Suffolk Road, Maidenhead, was sentenced to three and a half years imprisonment after being found guilty by jury of one count of sexual assault.

His cousin Zeeshan Ahmed, 28, formerly of Palmer Road, Wood Farm, Oxford, was sentenced to 18 months' imprisonment for perverting the course of justice.

A third man, Mustafa Ahmed, 26, of Harrow Road, London, pleaded guilty to one count of sexual assault on May 30 and was jailed for 18 months last Friday.

Bilal and Mustafa Ahmed were arrested at the end of last year as part of Operation Bullfinch, Thames Valley Police's sexual exploitation investigation.

Oxford Crown Court heard that Zeeshan Ahmed threatened the teenager when he heard the allegations.

Last week's verdicts came at the end of a two and a half week trial.

Operation Bullfinch senior investigating officer Det Supt Joe Kidman said: "I would like to commend the courage of this brave young woman who gave evidence against the men who committed these serious sexual assaults on her when she was a child.

"We will continue to work closely with Social Services to support victims, whatever their age now and whenever it was that the abuse occurred."

Adrian Foster, chief crown prosecutor for Thames and Chiltern Crown Prosecution Service (CPS) said: "The abuse this girl was subjected to was truly appalling. No-one, let alone a child, should ever be exploited as this young victim was.

"The men are nothing less than vicious sexual predators."

Celebrating a much greener way of living

OXFORDSHIRE is marking Recycle Week with a number of environmentally friendly events taking place across the county from Saturday.

It is an annual celebration promoted by the county council and Oxfordshire's five district councils to commend the recycling efforts from the area.

David Nimmo Smith, the county council's cabinet member for environment and economy, said: "Oxfordshire is at the top of the league when it comes to recycling and reducing household waste.

"But Recycle Week is about pushing the message that there is always something extra you can do in a fun and informative way.

"You can also find out a bit more about where your waste goes and the innovative things that are done to stop it simply going into landfill."

In Oxford, a recycling roadshow is being held at the Westgate Shopping Centre on Monday from 10am to 4pm.

Community Action Groups in Oxford will also be hosting a drop-in bike fixing workshop at The Story Museum, on Pembroke Street, on June 21.

And on the same day, a swap shop is taking place at Gladstone Road Community Centre in Headington, as well as a cooking with leftovers demonstration at the Hill End Centre.

Haye steps into the ring in fight to save centre

FORMER heavyweight boxing champion David Haye has put his muscle behind the campaign to save Temple Cowley Pools (TCP).

The world-famous 33-year-old, known as 'The Hayemaker', signed the petition earlier this week.

Oxford City Council made a decision to close Temple Cowley Pools and Fitness Centre in 2011, planning to build a replacement pool in Blackbird Leys.

Construction work on the £9.2million complex in Pegasus Road, which will have three pools, began in July last year.

Mr Haye, who became heavyweight champion in 2009, joined friends and campaigners Salman Naqvi and Faisal Aziz in declaring his support for Temple Cowley Pools earlier this week.

"I want to lend my support to my friends Salman Naqvi and Faisal Aziz in their assistance to the group 'Save Temple Cowley Swimming Pools and Fitness Centre'," he said.

"I have signed the petition and believe that the council should take note of the concerns of local residents in Cowley and further afield about losing their leisure centre.

"I back this campaign and hope this valuable facility remains open to the public for many years to come."

By Jack Johnson
jack@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Mr Naqvi, who is on the campaign team, added: "The people of Cowley have spoken and in case no one in the council has listened, a world renowned heavyweight boxer has spoken too.

"Our voice will reverberate as a manifestation of disgruntlement and will not stop until there is an acknowledgement that Temple Cowley Swimming Pools is here to stay."

Save TCP have until October 7 to put together a bid to keep the Temple Road site open, as well as incorporating the closed Barns Road Community Centre in Cowley.

Nigel Gibson, who leads the campaign, added: "It's absolutely fantastic news that David Haye supports the campaign.

"Everybody's support makes a difference, not just the community but clearly high profile figures.

"David Haye is well known for his general support for sport and encouraging people to take it up as a way of staying fit.

"We very much welcome the support he is giving us."

Delays expected as work starts on city roundabout

WORK has begun on turning Kennington interchange into a hamburger roundabout.

The county council have invested more than £6m of City Deal funding into the project, which also includes traffic-flow improvement measures at Hinksey Hill interchange and the refurbishment of four bridges.

It is hoped that work at the Kennington interchange will increase capacity at the junction by 30 per cent.

However, work is expected to continue until November and could cause traffic problems at the junctions, which are already used by 60,000 vehicles a day.

At Kennington Roundabout, a new carriageway for eastbound traffic will go through the central island, while the roundabout will be widened for westbound traffic heading towards the A34.

The Hinksey Hill Interchange will include a new slip-road from the Southern Bypass onto the A34, and will remove the need for traffic to stop at the lights. The four bridges between Heyford Hill and Hinksey Hill will also be resurfaced.

County to get new children's homes

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

OXFORDSHIRE County Council has revealed plans to build two new children's homes in Didcot and Thame.

A 'move-on' home for four older teenagers preparing to leave care could be built on Mereland Road, Didcot, while an assessment centre for six children on the edge of the care system is planned on the Glebe Land site in Thame.

It is hoped that the two homes would enable more vulnerable young people in Oxfordshire to remain in the county.

This would reduce the need to send children to areas where the council has less control over placement quality.

Melinda Tilley, cabinet member for children, education and families, said: "We all have a responsibility to help keep children safe, especially vulnerable young people who have often experienced traumatic childhoods. We want to work with local communities to provide the best possible environment for our young people.

"As well as helping ensure the safety of vulnerable young people in care, the new homes will reduce the need to send children to out-of-county placements many miles away."

The home in Didcot would provide lodging for 17 to 19-year-olds as they make the transition into adulthood.

Cllr Tilley added: "The 'move on' provision would encourage young people's independence within the local community, but would be closely monitored with a constant staff presence."

The centre in Thame would offer short-term accommodation for children aged 12 to 17, where staff would decide whether children can return home or if a foster carer is needed.

It is expected that children staying at the centre would only be there for part of the week, as assessments would also be taking place at their family homes.

Further plans for two more children's homes are still being developed by the council.

For residents who want to find out more a bout the plans, a drop-in session is being held at Didcot Civic Hall on June 25 and at Thame Town Hall on June 26, both running from 4pm to 8pm.

Combating rogue websites

AS you may have read in the press or seen on TV in recent months, there have been many web sites springing up which claim to offer government services. While these sites are not illegal, it is hard to see why they are necessary.

These "third-party sites" charge for services that people can get for free, or at a lower cost, through GOV.UK websites – the official government sites. The third party sites usually exaggerate the benefits of their additional services, don't tell you what you can get through GOV.UK, or imply an affiliation with government, and the sites can be very convincing.

The Government has been working with a range of organisations, such as Which and the National Trading Standards Board, to try to combat the problem and has had some success, with increasing numbers of users going straight to the Government sites, but there is still some way to go. I hope readers won't mind me using my article this month to add to the efforts to publicise the best way to avoid being caught out.

If you need a government service, then the best way to find it on-line is to go to www.gov.uk, where you'll see the very wide range of ways you can access government services on-line.

If you go straight to www.gov.uk, you will always get the real service, directly from the right department and at the lowest possible cost.

More and more services are now accessible on line and it is the quickest way to get all sorts of things you may need like vehicle tax discs and advice on visas.

NHS chief named in top-10 leaders list

THE chief executive of Oxford Health NHS Foundation Trust has been named as one of the 10 "most exceptional leaders" within the health service.

Stuart Bell was chosen by the Health Service Journal (HSJ) as one of the best NHS chief executives in the country.

He was first named in the HSJ's list of 50 chief executives 'doing an exceptional job of steering provider trusts', before their judging panel narrowed it down to their 10 preferred choices.

Stuart said: "While I am grateful to be recognised in this list, I note that the judges paid special attention to the staff survey question about whether staff would be happy for a friend or relative to be treated in their trust.

"I would therefore say that this is recognition is above else a testament to everyone who works hard to deliver a service they would be happy for their family and friends to receive."

Alastair McLellan, editor of HSJ, said: "Leading a provider trust is a mission which surely at times appears thankless, as does the pressing target to deliver outstanding care at reduced cost.

"The litmus test for judges was one particular question – the staff survey. Staff who would be happy for a friend or family member to be treated at the organisation at which they work."

Stock wanted

OXFORD: Students are being encouraged to donate their unwanted possessions to help stock the city's British Heart Foundation (BHF) shops.

BHF has partnered with Oxford City Council, Oxford Brookes University and Oxford University to raise awareness of the scheme.

Donation bins, pop-up boxes and clothing banks will be located across Oxford.

Attacker sought

OXFORD: A woman was punched in the leg and slapped across the face by a man while she was waiting for a bus.

The incident occurred at about 9am on June 3 at the number 3 bus stop in Rose Hill.

The offender is white, aged in his late fifties, with thinning white hair and a slight comb over.

Longer hours

OXFORD: Opening hours on the estate's Post Office are set to be extended to 82 hours a week following a refurbishment of the current branch.

Wood Farm Post Office, on Atkyns Hill, Headington, will close on June 24 for nine days to create a new open plan branch.

Owain delighted with top award

A NORTH Hinksey pub manager has been named as one of 30 young achievers in the country to win a national award.

Owain Lloyd Jones, who runs The Fishes, was presented with an Acorn Award for hospitality at a ceremony in Hampshire on June 2.

Judges praised the 27-year-old manager for his strong vision and determination to succeed.

They added they were also impressed with what Owain had achieved in his career so far.

He joins big names such as chefs Marco Pierre White, Marcus Wareing and Michael Caines, who have also been recipients of the Acorn Award.

"I'm really proud to win an Acorn Award, which is a really massive thing in our industry, and hugely prestigious," said Owain.

"Advice from my father, who said I should do what I love for the rest of my life, started me out on this career path, and it's advice I've always appreciated.

"I love what I do and by working hard, taking advantage of all the opportunities that have come my way, and with the support of my family, I feel I have achieved a lot so far.

"Having this officially recognised is just fantastic though, I never expected to win anything as big as this."

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Owain graduated from Oxford Brookes University in 2007 with a degree in hotel and restaurant management.

He has worked at several pubs across the Oxfordshire including The Fleece in Church Street, Witney, and The James Figg in Cornmarket, Thame.

Hamish Stoddart, co-founder of The Fishes' parent company Peach, said: "When Owain joined us from Oxford Brookes as a graduate trainee, we instantly felt he was a special character.

"He arrived with raw talent and an evident love of pubs but at that time not necessarily the skills to make a difference.

"Owain grabbed the opportunity to learn industry and restaurant knowledge, service skills and management ability, and he set about developing himself to acquire all of these skills."

• Owain Lloyd Hughes and (inset) The Fishes pub in North Hinksey

Mr Stoddard added: "After continuing to take The Fishes from strength to strength, we hope he'll ultimately go on to run one of his own pubs or become a partner with us."

Calls 'will be responded to' in fire strike

OXFORDSHIRE'S deputy chief fire officer has reassured the public that the fire service will respond to every call during today's union strike.

Fire Brigades Union (FBU) members will strike for 24 hours from 9am over a national dispute over central government pension reforms.

Non-striking full-time personnel and on-call staff will provide cover, while there is an agreement with the FBU that striking members will return to duty if there is a serious incident.

Nathan Travis, deputy chief fire officer, said: "I want to reassure the county's public that every emergency call made to their Fire and Rescue Service during these scheduled strike periods will be responded to.

"We have a cover plan in place which we have utilised well during previous FBU-called strike periods."

Members of the public are also being urged to ensure their own safety.

The fire service advise people to check their smoke alarms and ensure electrical sockets are not overloaded.

Mr Travis added: "These are all easy but significant tasks that people can do to help ensure safety and I would encourage residents to carry them out."

Another strike has been scheduled for June 21.

Two decades of women in the Church

• Celebrations of 20 years of women priests at Christ Church Cathedral

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

HUNDREDS of people gathered at Oxford's Christ Church Cathedral on Saturday, for a celebration of 20 years of women priests.

Reverend Rose Hudson Wilkin, chaplain to the Speaker of the House of Commons, gave the thanksgiving service during the morning.

The service featured a performance from Ballet Rambert, followed by a panel discussion at St Mary the Virgin Church on High Street, which pointed out the next Bishop of Oxford could be a woman.

Revd Liz Johnson, who was one of the first woman to be ordained in the country, attended Saturday's event.

She said: "The highlight of the day was the inspiring preaching by Rose Hudson Wilkin. I've also been moved by how much support we have from both men and women."

Director of Ordinands at the Diocese of Oxford, Revd Dr Amanda Bloor, added: "I feel the day has gone brilliantly.

"It's good to see a range of people looking back and remembering, but also looking forward to what will happen in the future."

Revd Colin James, of All Saints in Wokingham, also attended the service.

"It's been a celebration and we need to celebrate," he said.

"I have always felt very strongly what it was wrong not to accept the gifts God gave us, men and women have something unique to contribute and to not allow women to be ordained was to throw God's gifts back in his face.

"I didn't allow myself to go for ordination until women were able to be ordained."

Immigration at a local level

TO understand the impact of immigration, you have to start with the local context. It is after all the picture in constituencies like mine which make up the mosaic that is the national picture. It is no use just looking at the national figures and trying to imagine what their impact is locally. To find out what the impact is on schools, on doctors and on housing you have to start with the local picture.

According to the census figures in the Henley constituency, the total number of immigrants, that is both from the EU and from outside the EU, comes to less than 10 per cent. The total number of EU migrants is less than four per cent. Non-EU migrants make the figure up to 9.1 per cent. Nationally, immigration is divided into two.

First is non-EU immigration. In relation to this group, the Government has had a tremendous effect. Immigration for this group is down by a third since its peak in 2005. It is at its lowest since the late 1990s.

The second type of immigration is EU immigration. The problem with EU immigration is that many are perceived to come here without the prospect of work already agreed. Under the last Labour Government, some 90 per cent of the new jobs created went to immigrants. Under this Government, 87 per cent of the new jobs created have gone to British workers.

Of course the problems of immigration are being addressed, but in a way which does not compromise the British nationals who live abroad.

Major mock-up

OXFORD: St John Ambulance volunteers tested their first aid experience at the Hill End Centre on Tuesday, as they treated concert goers in a mock major incident.

The aim was to provide volunteers with experience of a real-life situation.

St John Ambulance unit manager Christopher Tancock said: "This type of exercise allows us to test our capabilities and may enable us to be the difference between a life lost or a life saved in the future."

Bus stop assault

OXFORD: A man sexually assaulted a woman in her fifties at a bus stop on June 3.

She was waiting for a bus in Crowell Road at about 1pm when a man, unknown to the victim, hugged and kissed her a number of times.

The offender, who walked off towards Littlemore, was a white man who had a mole on the left-hand side of the bridge of his nose.

Universities launch business partnership

A NEW partnership to give funding to local social entrepreneurs is due to be launched in the autumn.

The Oxfordshire Social Entrepreneurship Partnership (OSEP) of Oxford Brookes University, the University of Oxford and Student Hubs, aims to support potential business tycoons in the county.

OSEP secured more than £100,000 of funding following a joint pitch to social entrepreneur network UnLtd for the project.

Its work will be based on the universities' current social entrepreneurship programmes, and will be made available to their staff, students and recent graduates.

John Raftery, pro-vice chancellor for student experience at Oxford Brookes, said: "The possibilities that OSEP can create for Oxfordshire and its community are endless.

"Innovation and a vision for social innovation in Oxford are high on the Brookes' agenda, and we are pleased to take a leading role together with our partners.

"OSEP will be poised to reap all the rewards that seeding social enterprise can create."

Professor Andrew Hamilton, vice-chancellor at the University of Oxford, added: "So many of our students do such important and creative work in social enterprise, which is of great benefit to the local community.

"We are delighted to work with Oxford Brookes and Student Hubs to support social enterprises and encourage new initiatives."

UnLtd's judges were unanimous in their support for OSEP, describing the Oxfordshire bid as one of the strongest received.

Eight regional clusters were offered funding by UnLtd, with Oxfordshire receiving the highest single amount awarded.

Photography winner revealed

THE winner of a competition to photograph West Oxfordshire's countryside and farming heritage has been announced.

Howard Sherwood's image of a wheat field in early evening sunshine near his Lyneham home was picked from more than 250 entries by judges.

"I've always had an interest in photography, but it is only in recent years that I've started to take it much more seriously," said Howard.

"I often go out for walks near my home, and we are lucky in West Oxfordshire with the scenery. It's the first competition I've won and I'm delighted."

Howard was presented with a large canvas of his winning image, and was given a prize of afternoon tea at Wedgewood Lounge in Enstone.

The competition was set up by the council's Oxfordshire Cotswolds team to help publicise the local area as a tourist destination.

Richard Langridge, cabinet member with responsibility for tourism, said: "I cannot stress enough how important tourism is to our local economy, so we're very grateful to everyone who took part in the competition.

"We had many outstanding images that will help us showcase the area, and Mr Sherwood's picture is very evocative of our district and an extremely worthy winner."

Car stolen

CHIPPING NORTON: A man and woman took a car for a test drive and never returned.

At 3.30pm on May 29, the pair took the blue Ford Fiesta Zetec from Wheelers Car Sales, on Banbury Road, for a test drive, but didn't bring it back.

The dark silver Audi A3 convertible they arrived in was driven away by a third person following the theft.

Teen attacked

FARINGDON: A 15-year-old girl was pushed and kicked by two other girls in an assault on Pye Street at around 7.30pm last Wednesday.

The victim suffered minor injuries to her head and her hand, but did not require hospital treatment.

Arson attacks

BANBURY: A cycling arsonist targeted three cash machines and a Freemasons Hall in Banbury last week.

The man set fire to the High Street ATMs and Freemasons Hall in Marlborough Road at about 2.15am on Thursday.

He is described as male, wearing a floppy fishing hat, baggy jeans and a dark coat. He was riding a dark bicycle and holding a carrier bag.

Dancing the night away

BALLROOM, jazz and contemporary dance comes together for a brand new show, coming to Oxford's New Theatre tomorrow night.

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Dancers and groups from a range of backgrounds will be showing their skills as well as experimenting with other genres, as they blend their styles into one for a unique performance.

Strictly Come Dancing's Kevin Clifton and Karen Hauer provide the ballroom element of the evening, who will be performing alongside World Street Dance champions and Britain's Got Talent finalists Flawless.

They will be joined by Olivier award nominee Tommy Franzen, contemporary duo Alleviate and Irish fusion pairing Brosena.

"It's a challenge, and that's why me and Karen wanted to be a part of it really," Kevin said about the show.

"I think ballroom dancing can be in its own little corner of the dance world, and often doesn't really mix with other genres.

"So aside from it being a performance that involves us, we also saw it as a chance to learn and experience the styles ourselves. It is a challenge, but it's exciting."

As a result of numerous television shows, Kevin believes that dance is seeing a resurgence in popularity, giving shows like Flash Mob the opportunity to take place.

He added: "Nowadays you see 12million people watching ballroom dancing on a Saturday night, and everyone has an opinion on it now.

"They've all learned the dance terminology, and everyone knows what they're talking about now, whereas 10 years ago that would have been crazy."

Tomorrow's show begins at 7.30pm. Go to newtheatreoxford.org.uk.

• Performers will be blending their dance styles together for Flash Mob

Modern twist

STUDENTS from the City of Oxford College are performing a dance interpretation of Alice in Wonderland at the Pegasus Theatre tonight and tomorrow.

Wonderland sees students take on a variety of dance styles, including contemporary, jazz and ballet to bring the renowned story into the present day.

Both shows start at 7.30pm, and more details can be found at pegasustheatre.org.uk.

Radical poetry

A CELEBRATORY performance of radical poetry will be hosted by the Oxford Playhouse tomorrow.

The show sees a collaboration between poet Heathcote Williams and performer Roy Hutchins, as they give voice to some of history's most renowned writers, including Shakespeare, Blake, and Pussy Riot.

It starts at 5pm. For more information, go to oxfordplayhouse.com.

Andy Jordan

MUSICIAN Andy Jordan, best known for his role on E4's hit television series Made in Chelsea, comes to Oxford's O2 Academy on Saturday.

Doors open at 7pm, and further details are available at o2academyoxford.co.uk.

Oxfordshire Window Shutter Franchise Opportunity

Shuttercraft are the UK's leading window shutters franchise company and have franchise opportunities in Oxfordshire and the surrounding area. As a Shuttercraft franchisee you'll be surveying, selling and installing the finest quality S:CRAFT made-to-measure interior window shutters and blinds in a growth market worth an estimated £100m plus in the UK last year.

Shuttercraft's franchise opportunity provides candidates with fast track entry to market by setting them up to be home/van/internet based. This not only keeps running costs down but means franchisees don't need expensive retail premises to secure sales and therefore the capital investment level is low. Shuttercraft's premium product range allows franchisees to earn high profit margins and also earn for their time fitting too, whilst the company's supply chain provides franchisees with the ability to run a cash positive business from the offset.

Shuttercraft's franchise package is affordable and includes everything you'll need to set up and run a successful window shutter franchise in your area. They'll provide you with a protected territory, full product training and technical support, a comprehensive range of samples and demonstration equipment, all your business stationary, promotional flyers & advertising templates, access to their online quoting and ordering system, full marketing launch and on-going support including Google Pay-Per-Click advertising management, affiliate and direct marketing support, your own regionally optimised website and in-house Search Engine Optimisation management to help generate leads for you.

Shuttercraft's franchise network has grown to 10 franchisees across the country and offers candidates a life changing opportunity to run their own successful shutter business in their area while benefiting from Shuttercraft's brand name, reputation and market leading product range.

Find out more today by visiting www.shuttercraft-franchise.co.uk or call 0800 316 8630 to request an information pack.

The Paperboys

CANADIAN folk band The Paperboys, who have released seven albums in their illustrious career, perform at Didcot's Cornerstone theatre tomorrow evening.

Formed by Tom Landa in 1991, The Paperboys blend Celtic folk with bluegrass, soul and country influences, and have played at countless venues across the world.

It starts at 8pm, and more details are available at cornerstone-arts.org.

Rocking out

EELS come to Oxford's New Theatre on Sunday, as part of a European tour to celebrate the release of their new album 'The Cautionary Tales Of Mark Oliver Everett'.

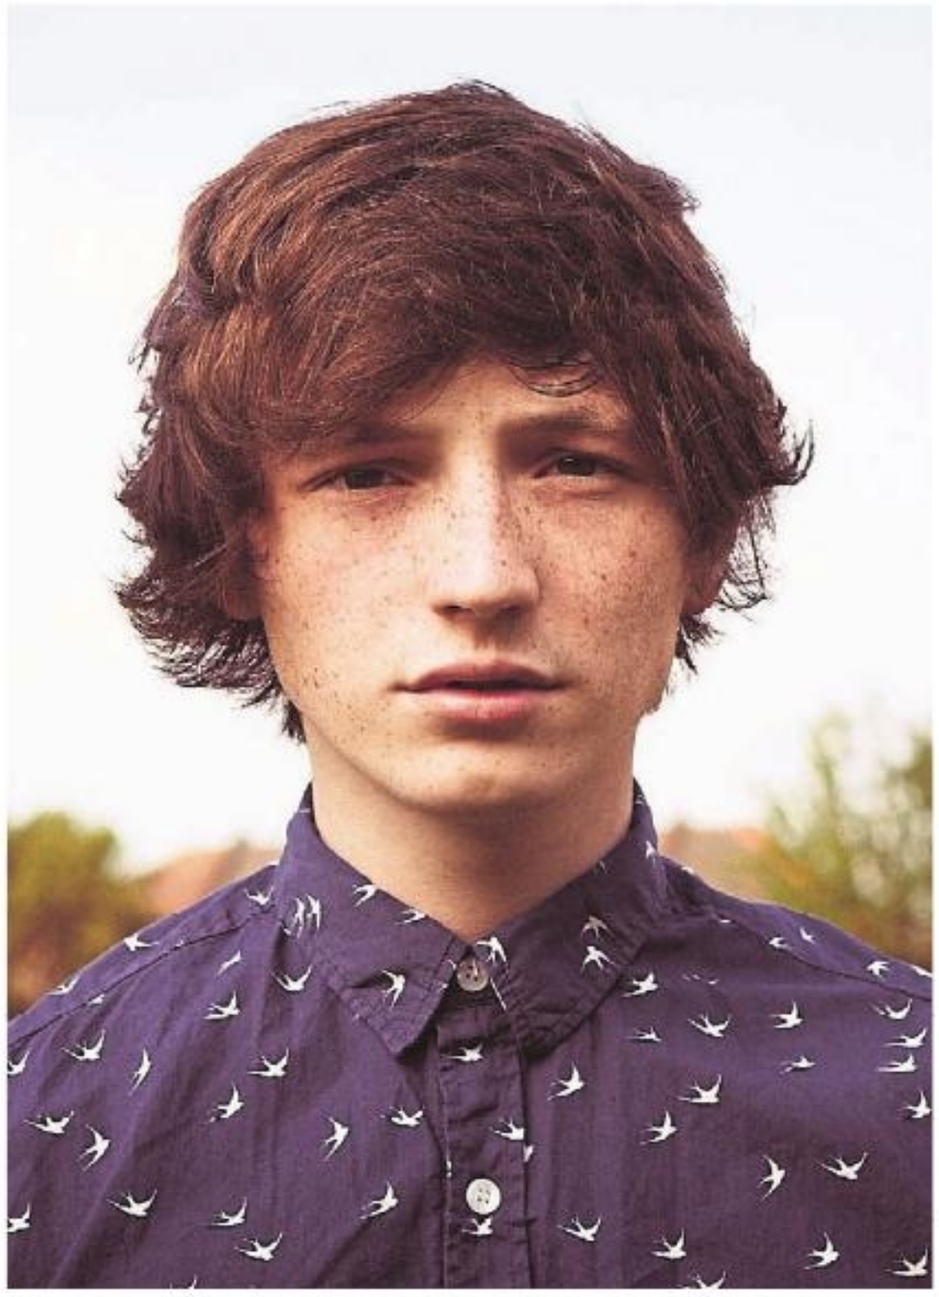
It is the 11th full-length release for Eels since their debut record 'Beautiful Freak' came out in 1996.

Sunday's show starts at 7pm, and booking information can be found at newtheatreoxford.org.uk.

Calamity Jane

WOODLEY Light Operatic Society present their take on Calamity Jane, being staged at Henley's Kenton Theatre until Saturday.

A full list of show times and ticket prices can be found at kentontheatre.co.uk.



New album, new sound

OXFORD-BORN singer Lewis Watson is set to release his debut album 'The Morning' next week, ahead of a full UK tour taking place later this year.

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Lewis has had a successful start to his music career, with his debut EP 'It's Got Four Sad Songs On It, BTW' topping the iTunes singer-songwriter chart on its first day of release in May 2012.

He followed that with four more EPs, starting with 'Another Four Sad Songs' In October of the same year.

In 2013 Lewis released a further three EPs, with 'The Wild', 'Four More Songs' and 'Some Songs With Some Friends' all receiving critical acclaim.

It led to the 21-year-old being offered a deal with Warner Bros. Records, culminating in the upcoming release of 'The Morning' on Monday.

"I'm not a fan of just repackaging old material," said Lewis. "The original EPs were meant to be work in progress and these versions are much more polished.

"I wanted people to be able to see the journey of me as an artist and the evolution of the songs.

"It's unorthodox, but I feel very lucky that I've had that opportunity."

The first single from the album, entitled 'Stay', was released on Monday, and takes Lewis's stripped-back guitar and voice roots to create a more textured sound.

'Stay' has already had well over 250,000 views on YouTube since the video was released last month, as well as more than 3,000 likes.

Before the video's release, Lewis asked fans to design pictures of his lyrics to be used in a real-time video, currently featured on his website.

For more information on Lewis's upcoming gigs, or to find about further details about 'The Morning', go to lewiswatsonmusic.com.

• Lewis Watson, who grew up in Bicester, releases his first album on Monday.

WIN tickets to Cornbury!

FOLLOWING on from a memorable tenth anniversary year, the Cornbury Music Festival is promising another show of amazing live performances at the stunning Great Tew Estate over the weekend of 4th – 7th July.

As one of England's most civilised gatherings, the Festival is the summer hotspot for catching great music while hanging out with the Chipping Norton Set!

Friday features Dublin duo Hudson Taylor, perfect pop stars The Feeling, American troubadour Suzanne Vega, 'Mr Wendal' creators Arrested Development, beautiful pop diva Sophie Ellis-Bextor, and national treasure Jools Holland with special guests Melanie C and Marc Almond.

Saturday includes festival favourite Jon Allen, American blues travellers Reverend Peyton's Big Damn Band, New Jersey's Southside Johnny & the Asbury Jukes featuring Gary US Bonds, and chart topping Nina Nesbitt. The American invasion continues with Illinois rocker Lissie and Grammy-Award winning country new-girl Kacey Musgraves. Other artists include 60s icon Georgie Fame with Guy Barker's 16 piece big band, pop-hit makers Scouting for Girls, and Scottish rock legends Simple Minds.

Come Sunday, the festival goes pop with performances from X Factor 2013 winner Sam Bailey and finalist Luke Friend, and an eclectic cocktail of Caribbean flavoured Kid Creole & The Coconuts, 70s hit-makers 10cc and the Japanese Jeff Beck 'Kill Bill' theme tune writer Tomoyasu Hotei. Closing the festival on the Songbird Stage is Celtic fusion band Peatbog Faeries, and on the main stage the legendary Gipsy Kings winner of this year's Grammy for Best World Music Album.

Closing date:
Friday, June 27, 2014

And that's not all

The Festival has booked a great line-up of comedy stars including Al Murray and Jeremy Hardy. For younger festival goers there's the fantastic children's zone with countless activities along with an extensive fairground and giant Ferris wheel. And don't miss a visit to the Vintage mobile cinema which will be showing a mini short-film festival.

For more information including timetables for festival bus services to the site from Banbury and Charlbury stations and tickets go to cornburymusicfestival.com

We have 3 pairs of weekend tickets to this great festival to give away and to be in with a chance of winning all you have to do is answer this simple question:

Q: With which band did Marc Almond first rise to fame?

NATIONAL CARE HOME Open Day

20 JUNE 2014

Join the celebration

At Abingdon Court we will be showcasing many of the stimulating clubs and activities that we organise for our like-minded residents with similar interests. Some of the clubs which our residents enjoy include gardening, arts and crafts and cake decorating.

The idea behind the event is to encourage local people to visit care homes in their neighbourhood and work together to develop better relationships between the home and the community.

We warmly invite everyone to join us, cream teas and strawberries will be served between 2pm - 4pm.

Let us show you we care.

National Care Home Feature

This year's National Care Home Open Day hopes to build on previous success

TV and radio presenter, Gloria Hunniford has been announced as the ambassador and public face of the National Care Home Open Day on the 20th June 2014.

This year's National Care Home Open Day will have an international edge as South Africa and Australia join in for the first time. Care homes across the world will collectively open their doors to the public. Organisers of the event aim to connect care homes with their local communities, challenge misconceptions about residential care and show local people the excellent services at the heart of their community. Care homes will also be participating in an international Mexican wave, starting in Australia and coming all the way to the UK.

Gloria Hunniford, a highly respected journalist and broadcaster, is a keen supporter of issues that affect older people. She aims to raise the profile of the event and encourage people from across the country to visit their local care home for the day. Gloria Hunniford is encouraging care homes to be as creative as possible with the activities they put on, and to encourage their local community to visit and perhaps even become volunteers in their local care home.

Gloria Hunniford, National Care Home Open Day Ambassador, said:

"The National Care Home Open Day is a great opportunity for people to see for themselves the quality of the care services in their neighbourhoods, to make informed assessments of the range of what is available and the standard of care.

"Care homes and their residents are a very important but sometimes overlooked part of our society. The National Care Home Open Day will help strengthen the relationships between care home residents, staff and their next door neighbours. It may even encourage a few people to think about volunteering to do something during the rest of the year to support and befriend residents in local care homes.

"Last year's National Care Home Open Day was a great success, and this year we are taking it to a whole new level with older people and care homes from across the world getting involved and showing their support and concern for the care sector."

Supermini praised for its style and running costs as it is named best small car for 2014

Top honours for Citroën DS3

• The Citroën DS3, the best small car for 2014 as voted by the What Car? JD Power Survey

A DRIVER satisfaction survey has named the Citroën DS3 as the best small car for 2014.

The French supermini, which launched in 2010, scored 79.3 per cent for the What Car? JD Power Survey 2014 satisfaction survey.

It means the car ranks 21 overall out of 109 models and scored two per cent over the average 77.3 per cent.

The model was praised for its style, running costs, driver visibility, and colour options.

Car owner Nick Baum, 44, said: "The DS3 never fails to put a smile on my face. It looks terrific, it's comfortable and it's quick; I went for the 1.6 VTi petrol motor.

"The DS3 has plenty of room for my three boys in the back, even with the driver's seat pushed all the way back to accommodate my long legs.

"Equipment levels are great, with auto lights and wipers, cruise control and a decent stereo that connects to the iPhone."

What Car? editor Jim Holder said: "DS3 has really established itself as an extremely desirable small car – its bold, fun and customisable styling sets it apart from its competitors."

REVIEW: Citroën DS3
By Timon Williams

The model was names best supermini in the 2013 survey.

Citroën UK's managing director Linda Jackson said: "To top its class for two successive years is a fantastic result for DS3 and it is all the more special to win an award that is voted for by owners themselves.

"Receiving such high praise for a variety of aspects, from styling to running costs, is testament to the DS3's versatility and desirability as it continues to impress across the board."

Going into next years What Car? JD Power Survey, competitors of the DS3 Citroën model seem to have a lot of catching up to do in both technological and aesthetic fields in order to knock the DS3 off its top spot.

The JD Power survey took place between January and March 2014, using cars registered between January 2011 and December 2012.

Only models with more than 4,000 sales were considered - 109 in total.

†Finance plan is only available to customers aged 18 years and over, subject to status through Finance Mitsubishi, 116 Cockfosters Rd, Barnet, EN4 0DY. Indemnities may be required. Finance Mitsubishi is part of Lloyds Bank Asset Finance. Your regular monthly repayments are low because it is the nature of a PCP product that a significant proportion of the amount of credit/charges are payable at the end of the contract by one large final repayment. The finance plan figures are based upon a max permitted annual mileage of 10,000, excess mileage is charged at 9p per mile. The Guaranteed Future Value (GFV) is subject to condition and mileage payable unless you choose to exercise your Goods Return Option, in which case it is subject to the vehicle being returned on time, in good condition (fair wear and tear accepted), within the permitted max mileage and all payments having been made. Offer is only applicable in the UK (excludes NI, CI & I.O.M) and may be amended or withdrawn at any time. Offer available between 1st April to 30th June 2014. Finance Mitsubishi is part of Lloyds Bank Asset Finance. Indemnities may be required. Over 65mpg achieved on all Mirage models. Combined range fuel consumption from 65.7mpg to 68.9mpg. Burnell salutes his 'fantastic' Dragons

news@taylornewspapers.co.uk

HEAD coach Justin Burnell hailed his "fantastic" team after London Welsh beat Bristol Rugby to clinch a place in next season's Aviva Premiership.

The Dragons went into the second leg of the final with a 27-8 lead, ultimately securing an emphatic 48-28 aggregate win.

Burnell's side will now face the likes of Leicester Tigers, Northampton Saints and Saracens in the top flight of English rugby.

"It's just fantastic for London Welsh, it's a fantastic club," said Burnell.

"How good is that going to be in Oxford and for the supporters – Premiership rugby. I'm absolutely over the moon."

Initially the Exiles faced tough opposition with tries from Andy Short, Mitch Eadie and Adam Hughes, reducing their lead to eight points.

Despite the intense pressure from Bristol, James Tideswell and Seb Stegmann crossed late on to ensure an immediate Premiership return for Welsh.

Veteran fly half Gordon Ross did well to convert Stegmann's try to give the Exiles a 21-20 victory at the Memorial Stadium.

Burnell added: "Bristol have been a very, very good side all year.

"We were constantly reminded that there would be 12,000 people screaming and shouting, but we had to shut that noise out and worry about ourselves.

"We weathered the storm for the first 20-30 minutes and then dug in and went up another gear."

He continued: "What you find with London Welsh is we haven't really got any marquee signings or superstars.

"What we've got is a massive collective approach.

"If you work hard you get rewards. That's our environment and that's what we thrive on.

"People who now come into our environment now have to fit into what we're about."

Barkley eager to help Exiles in Premiership

FORMER England fly half Olly Barkley said he cannot wait to "get stuck in" after joining newly promoted London Welsh this week.

The 32-year-old, who has 23 international caps, became head coach Justin Burnell's first signing since the Exiles won promotion back to the Aviva Premiership.

Barkley joins Welsh after four-months with the Scarlets.

"There looks to be a spirit amongst the group I can't wait to be involved with," he said.

"I'm looking forward to getting stuck in to the challenge of the Premiership with them all, and helping the club further establish itself at the Kassam Stadium and in Oxford."

Burnell said Barkley was "exactly the type of player" he had been looking for.

He added: "He's got a fantastic game understanding and his other biggest strong point is his accuracy with the ball.

"His goal kicking is phenomenal and we'll need that in the Aviva Premiership."

Tristan Roberts, Nick Reynolds, Chris Elder, Taione Vea, Ricky Reeves, Shane Cahill, Jack Gilding, Nathan Taylor and Jimmy Litchfield have all also signed for the Exiles.

Meanwhile, the Dragons have been drawn with Edinburgh Rugby, Bordeaux Begles and Lyon in Pool 5 of the European Rugby Challenge Cup.

Waddock makes his first new signing with Hylton

OXFORD United's new signing Danny Hylton says he cannot wait to be a part of the club's promotion plans next season.

The 25-year-old striker penned a two-year-deal with the club last week after being released from newly promoted Sky Bet Championship side Rotherham United.

Hylton is reunited with head coach Gary Waddock, with whom he enjoyed a successful spell with at Aldershot Town.

He scored 48 goals in 139 appearances as the Shots won promotion into the Football League in 2008.

However, he was unable to break into the Rotherham side last year, after joining the Millers in the summer, and was loaned out to Sky Bet League Two sides Bury and AFC Wimbledon.

"It has been a frustrating time at Rotherham," he said.

"I am really pleased to join Oxford on a permanent basis.

"I have played against them a number of times and know it's an ambitious club with good players and I am really looking forward to it.

"I enjoyed working with Gary Waddock at Aldershot and I played some of the best football of my career under him.

"His sides work hard for each other and play good football and I can't wait to be part of that next season."

The striker is Waddock's first signing of the summer and the United boss is confident that Hylton will hit the ground running at the Kassam Stadium.

"Danny has a great attitude and wants to show what he can do again," said Waddock.

"He maybe has a point to prove and is hungry to do well here."

Earlier this week, United announced they will play Championship club AFC Bournemouth in a pre-season friendly at the Kassam on August 2.

Waddock's side will also host Wolves on July 29.

Smith wants top-five result at Catalunya

OXFORD'S Bradley Smith is aiming to improve on his result at the Catalonian Grand Prix 12 months ago when he takes to the Barcelona circuit this weekend.

The 23-year-old MotoGP star finished sixth in Catalonia last year and is setting his sights on a top five finish this time around.

Smith failed to finish the Italian GP in Mugello last time out, and is hoping for more luck this weekend.

"The Yamaha works well here and last season I got my joint best result of sixth in my rookie season," said Smith, who is 10th in the rider standings.

"So this year I plan to up the stakes and finish higher.

"It's demanding and technical but good fun to ride so I am charged and ready to do my best."

The Tech3 rider added: "The last Grand Prix at Mugello did not go exactly how I had planned and it was not a true representation of my race ability.

"We were just a bit unlucky which can sometimes happen to any rider, however I am confident as always and I know I can get a strong result this weekend."

Tennis ace Ben gets to Virgin Active finals

FIVE-YEAR-OLD Ben Ferrett beat over 900 children to reach the final of a nationwide tennis talent search.

Ben, from Hyde Place in Oxford, took part in the final of Virgin Active's 'Search for a Tennis Ace' last Saturday and, although he didn't win, impressed British number two Laura Robson.

She was joined by the Lawn Tennis Association's head of performance tennis Simon Jones and Virgin Active's National Racquets programme coordinator Simon Pearson.

Forty children, aged between five and eight-years-old, attended the final.

Robson, a Virgin Active ambassador, said: "I would like to extend my sincere congratulations to Ben for getting to the finals.

"He did incredibly well to get this far, the competition on the day was incredibly tough and Ben showed great potential.

"I wish him luck for the future."

Mr Jones added: "Ben demonstrated a really high skill level and excellent sportsmanship which was great to see."

Another loss for Oxford RL

OXFORD Rugby League suffered a third straight loss in the Championship One, leaving them third from bottom in the table.

Tony Benson's side have taken 13 points from ten games so far this season and last weekend's 36-22 loss to Gateshead Thunder was their sixth defeat of the campaign.

Oxford, however, were valiant in defeat and pushed Gateshead, who are on a five-match winning run, all the way.

The Thunder raced ahead thanks to Louis Sheriff's early try, but Rory Sharratt replied for the home side before Gateshead scored two tries in quick succession.

Callum Mulkeen replied only minutes into the second half to narrow Thunders lead and Rooney ran through to touch down before Sean Morris scored two tries either side of two more Gateshead scores.

Oxford will look to return to winning ways when they welcome London Skolars to Iffley Road this weekend.

Hannah's run

OXFORD City athlete Hannah England will compete for Great Britain and Northern Ireland in Germany later this month.

England will run in the 1,500m event at the European Championships in Braunschweig on June 21 and 22

Saints' run stopped by Revolution

OXFORD Saints' unbeaten start to the season came to an end last Sunday as they were beaten 26-7 by Shropshire Revolution.

Saints had won their opening four matches of the Central Conference, but a fifth successive victory proved out of reach.

Revolutions opened the scoring as they broke up the middle to score on a 71-yard touchdown.

On the next Shropshire position, the Saints defensive backs missed a coverage and the Revolution wide receiver caught a 71 yard touchdown, but the kick was missed for 13-0. The second quarter started with the Revolution driving the ball and they scored another running Touchdown from seven yards to make the score 19-0.

Shropshire made it 26-0 just before half-time, scoring on a 16 yard pass touchdown.

After the break, the Saints offense drove down the field and wide receiver James Walter scored a touchdown to make the score 26-7.

Saints are next in action on June 22 when they face the Lincolnshire bombers.

POOR PACE UNEXPECTED

Plato bemoans BMW's advantage over the rest of the field in Cheshire

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

JASON Plato blasted the current regulations in the British Touring Car Championship, after his MG was off the pace at Oulton Park on Sunday.

Despite finishing in the top-four in all three races at the Cheshire circuit, Plato was unhappy at how far behind the BMWs he was.

Colin Turkington won the first two races comfortably with BMW team-mate Rob Collard on the podium, with Plato several seconds further back.

The rear-wheel drive BMWs run to different specifications than the MGs as per the regulations, and Plato thinks that the performance gap between the two is too high.

"It was good to get points, but we certainly didn't expect to be so far off the BMWs," he said after the weekend.

"There's meant to be performance parity, but once again the rear-wheel drive cars streaked ahead at the start and into the distance.

"We've reached the point where we can't do any better because we're not allowed to. It's a BMW championship, I'm afraid.

"I think they'll win races everywhere, and with circuits such as Croft and Knockhill coming up, Colin could be way ahead come September."

Plato had qualified second for the first race, but a fast-starting Collard got past on the first lap, meaning the Sunningwell-based driver finished third.

He was fourth in the second race, following a lengthy battle with Rob Austin's Audi for the final podium spot.

Plato did manage to finish third on the road in the final race, but a 1.5 second penalty for hitting Collard's car dropped him back a space.

Following the results, Plato is now fourth in the championship standings with 147 points, 36 behind series leader Turkington.

Round five of the championship takes place at the North Yorkshire circuit of Croft on June 29.

How the Age UK Hearing Aids Special Hearing Advice Week has benefited our customers

At Age UK Hearing Aids we understand that each person's hearing loss and individual hearing requirements are unique to them - so it's worth knowing that each manufacturer approaches hearing loss differently. Some are better at dealing with background noise or with frequency shaping, others have better ways of dealing with speech clarity issues or noise cancellation.

Being independent we deal with every hearing aid manufacturer to ensure we can offer the best choice of hearing solution for your loss. During the Special Hearing Advice Week you will be able try for yourself the best hearing solutions for your individual hearing loss.

"My daughter kept telling me to have a hearing assessment, so I went with her to my local hearing event. What a difference my improved hearing has made to both of our lives. Spending time together has become less of a challenge for us both."

Mr Gillies, 18/05/2013

"I would like to thank Age UK Hearing Aids for the care and attention given to me regarding the nature of my hearing loss. The extensive technical tests and follow up visits were very helpful."

Sylvia Fell, 27/12/2013
